In Hawaii, the Hospitality and Tourism cluster will be the largest cluster overall, but Human Services will be the fastest growing. Jobs in the Human Services sector will increase by 16% by 2018.

Marketing, Sales, and Service will add the most jobs in Hawaii through 2018, while Agriculture, Food, and Natural Resources, Arts, A/V Technology, and Communications, Business, Management, and Administration, and Transportation, Distribution, and Logistics will lose jobs.

In 2018, 47% of all jobs in Hawaii will be found in the Hospitality and Tourism, Marketing, Sales and Services, and Business, Management and Administration clusters.

The largest cluster—Business, Management, and Administration—will require substantial postsecondary education in 2018. It will grow by 4% for those with postsecondary education and 2% for those without.

Jobs for high school graduates and high school dropouts will grow more slowly than jobs for those with postsecondary education.

In Hawaii by 2018, there will be about 66,000 jobs for those with certificates.
